

PLAY THAT TUNE!

Pick ONE of these tunes that you know well.

Sing it on a neutral syllable, and think what the solfege is.

Once you think you know the solfege, try playing it on the piano to see if you got it right.

Then try playing your tune using as many of the other major pentascales as you can.

EASIER:

Uses Do-re-mi (and starts on Mi)

Hot Cross buns

Mary Had a Little Lamb

HARDER:

Use all five notes:

Jingle Bells (starts Mi)

Ode to Joy (starts on Mi)

Use all five notes, and JUMPS to five below:

Alouette (starts on Do)

Old MacDonald (starts on Do)

Uses all five notes, PLUS the sixth note La

Twinkle Twinkle Little Star

These can be played using ONLY black keys:

Amazing Grace (starts on Sol)

Old MacDonald (starts on Do, and jumps down to Sol)

Hot Cross Buns/Mary Had a Little Lamb (both start on Mi)
